I raised money for Senator Bill Bradley for a fundraiser in San Francisco during his campaign for president in 1999.

I held a house party/fundraiser for the unsuccessful campaign to elect Susan Leal for mayor in San Francisco in June 2003.

I was co-chair of the Bay Area Lawyers Committee to Elect John Kerry in 2003-2004. The committee raised money, recruited lawyers for voter protection efforts, and organized surrogate speakers when asked.

I was a member of a group of lawyers who supported Phil Angelides for Governor in 2005 to 2006. I was on the host committee for a fundraiser for which I raised and gave money.

I was co-chair of the Bay Area Lawyers Committee to Elect Barack Obama from 2006 to 2008, and was a member of the National Finance Committee from 2007 to 2008. The lawyers committee raised money, recruited lawyers for voter protection efforts, and organized surrogate speakers when asked. I spoke at several events.

I raised money and sponsored an event for the campaign of Kamala Harris for Attorney General in 2009, before I joined the Department of Justice.

- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have not served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

As a lawyer with the Georgia Legal Services Program in Savannah, Georgia from 1979 to 1984, I brought litigation in United States District Court and handled a general legal services caseload, circuit riding weekly to a rural county for hearings and appointments. I was in court frequently.

I then worked with Coblentz, Patch, Duffy & Bass, LLP, where I had a broad-based, complex commercial litigation practice from 1984 to 2009. I became a partner in 1988 and headed the firm's employment litigation practice. I also served as Vice Chancellor, Co-Chancellor and Chancellor to the Episcopal Bishop of California from 1992 to 2009, essentially performing the work of an outside general counsel. My clients ran the gamut from individuals to small companies to much bigger ones. An example of my varied practice is seen from matters handled in my last six months with the firm: I settled a wage and hour class action for Boudin Bakeries and related companies; tried (and won) a two-week jury trial involving fraud, construction and real estate causes of actions for Albertson's, LLC and Save Mart, Inc.; tried (and won) a will reformation case for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital; was lead counsel for a family in two complex partition actions involving hundreds of parcels of real property in California; won summary judgment on a multimillion dollar breach of contract matter; and settled a partnership dispute involving players in the financial services industry.

I started government service in June 2009, and through May 2010, I was Counselor to the Assistant Attorney General for the Civil Division at the Department of Justice. I spearheaded or participated in a wide range of projects, including matters related to the Freedom of Information Act, tobacco litigation, increasing the affirmative consumer litigation brought by the Civil Division, analysis of amendments to the False Claims Act, litigation reports concerning the Civil Division's national security cases, and efforts to increase access to justice, including expansion of the Civil Division's pro bono efforts. In addition, I began supervising immigration litigation in September 2009.

I was appointed Deputy Assistant Attorney General in the Civil Division in June 2010. I oversee the Office of Immigration Litigation ("OIL"), which includes two sections (District Court and Appellate) with more than 300 lawyers that handle all of the federal civil appellate litigation arising from petitions for review from the immigration courts and roughly 50% of the civil United States District Court immigration matters, primarily class actions, habeas and mandamus petitions, and certain Bivens actions. I participate in various interdepartmental task forces concerning immigration and national security, including the applicability of terrorism bars to various groups and individuals. I led an interagency task force against immigration services fraud. I also strategize regarding some non-immigration cases of interest and importance to the Civil Division.

ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

With Georgia Legal Services, I represented low income persons on a variety of issues impacting people living at or below the poverty line.

In private practice, my clients ranged from individuals to large corporations. I emphasized employment issues over the course of my career, but had a broad-based, complex commercial practice.

As Counselor and Deputy Assistant Attorney General in the Civil Division of the United States Department of Justice, my sole client is and has been the United States government. My primary area of responsibility is immigration matters.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

With Georgia Legal Services, my practice was 100% in litigation, and I appeared in court frequently, usually more than once a week.

With Coblenz, Patch, Duffy & Bass, LLP, my practice was at least 90% in litigation, and I appeared in court frequently (at least three times a month, and often more frequently).

As a Deputy Assistant Attorney General in the Civil Division, my responsibilities primarily involve decisions about litigation, but I do not typically handle the litigation myself. I have argued five cases in the Courts of Appeals and one in federal district court.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| 1. federal courts: | 40% |
| 2. state courts of record: | 60% |
| 3. other courts: | |
| 4. administrative agencies: | |

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| 1. civil proceedings: | 97% |
| 2. criminal proceedings: | 3% |

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I have tried at least 16 cases to verdict in courts of record as sole or lead counsel. I did not try any as an associate counsel. Fifteen cases were civil and one was criminal. (These numbers do not include numerous short cause custody cases I tried to the court in Georgia.)

- i. What percentage of these trials were:

- | | |
|--------------|-----|
| 1. jury: | 56% |
| 2. non-jury: | 44% |

- e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have not practiced before the Supreme Court of the United States.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

1. Berkeley Geochronology Center v. Institute of Human Origins, No. 736234-9 (Cal. Super. Ct., Alameda County); Judge James Lambden; May 1994 – May 1995

I was lead counsel for Berkeley Geochronology Center, a non-profit whose board was led by Gordon Getty, and successfully prosecuted this breach of charitable trust action on behalf of a world renowned laboratory for dating geological sites against Donald Johanson's rival organization, the Institute of Human Origins. The case ultimately settled after Hon. James Lambden granted a preliminary injunction to my client in the summer of 1994. The lawsuit and my involvement in it is described in Java Man: How Two Geologists Changed Our Understanding of Human Evolution, written by Carl C. Swisher III, Garniss H. Curtiss and Roger Lewin, and published by The University of Chicago Press in 2000.

2. Fowler v. The Regents of The University of California, No. 527662 (Cal. Super. Ct., Sacramento County); Hon. Eugene Gualco; approximately May 1991 – September 1993

I was lead counsel for The Regents and Aramark Corporation and won a three-week jury trial in the first same-sex sexual harassment and wrongful termination in violation of public policy case tried in California. The case involved a cafeteria employee's claims that his supervisor engaged in quid pro quo sexual harassment.

3. Genzano v. Coastal International and Green, No. CGC-02-405121 (Cal. Super. Ct., San Francisco); Hon Read Ambler, ret.; approximately June 2002 – January 2004

I was lead counsel for Coastal International and its CEO and majority shareholder, Green, and successfully defended them in a wrongful termination and partnership dispute in a several weeks-long, bet-the-company arbitration. Genzano had alleged that Green and his law firm (Squire Sanders) had breached their fiduciary duties to him and that Green had pushed them out of their lucrative partnership despite Genzano's outsized contribution to it.

I was lead counsel and demurred successfully to an Unfair Business Practices Act case under California Business and Professions Code 17200. Plaintiff alleged that a grocery store chain committed an unfair act or practice by creating blight in a neighborhood when it ceased operations in a particular location and did not sublet the premises. I then briefed, argued and won the case in the California Court of Appeals. The opinion in this matter helped develop the definition of unfair practices under California law.

v. Holder, 638 F.3d 1196 (9th Cir. 2011); Judges Fisher, Bybee, and Hall (with Judge Graber substituting for Judge Hall after her death); September – October, 2010

I argued three cases which had been briefed by others but consolidated for hearing in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit on October 4, 2010, concerning the procedures to be employed in bond hearings held for aliens in detention pursuant to INA Section 236(a). We prevailed in requiring administrative exhaustion through the BIA as a prerequisite to challenge a bond hearing determination in Leonardo v. Crawford, but lost in the Singh v. Holder case where the court ruled that the burden of proof on the government should be clear and convincing evidence and that bond hearings should be recorded or transcribed. Singh v. Chertoff was remanded for the trial court to apply the rulings in the other two cases.

6. McKinney-Griff Inc. v. Albertson's, et al., No. RG-06-0250071 (Cal. Super. Ct., Alameda County); Judge Stephen Dombrink; approximately June 2006 – June 2009

I was lead counsel for Albertson's LLC and Save Mart, Inc. in a matter arising from the construction and operation of a large grocery store in the Lake Merritt Shopping Center in Oakland, California. A local business sued for fraud, interference with contract, construction defect, an accounting and injunctive relief because of alleged interference. I was lead counsel for plaintiff Miniace, the former president of Pacific Maritime Association (PMA), who was terminated for breach of fiduciary duty for conduct related to helping his CFO's widow obtain substantial life insurance benefits. We sued PMA for wrongful termination, and PMA cross-complained against Miniace and the CFO's widow for breach of fiduciary duty under ERISA and for recovery of the insurance proceeds. Judge Illston bifurcated the case and held a two-week bench trial on the cross-complaint. Susan Harriman, counsel for the widow, and I successfully defended the cross-complaint. Mr. Miniace then settled after the trial court's decision.

8. Pebble Beach Fire Litigation [consolidated], No. M19160 (Cal. Super. Ct., Monterey County); Judge Richard Silver; June 1987 – September 1990

I co-defended the Pebble Beach Company before Hon. Richard Silver in actions filed by 32 homeowners and their insurance companies arising out of a fire on May 31, 1987 that started in part of the Monterey forest controlled by my clients. The allegations were in part that the company had not maintained the open space in a reasonable manner to protect the homeowners from fire and had interfered with the ability to fight the fire by blocking vehicular access to the open space. This case settled on the eve of trial in the fall of 1990.

I was the most junior of three primary trial counsel in a class action against 13 school districts and the State of Georgia for denial of equal educational opportunities by use of tracking policies which placed African American children in the slowest classes, and by the intentional misclassification of African American students as educable mentally retarded when their testing revealed that they should not have been placed in special education classes. After a two-month bench trial, Judge Edenfield found substantially for the defendants because he did not find intentional discrimination. I did not participate in the appeal, which affirmed Judge Edenfield's decision.

18. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

While I was in private practice, in my role as Chancellor of the Episcopal Diocese of California (and previously as Vice Chancellor and Co-Chancellor), I advised the Diocese on a host of matters, including interpretation of the Canons of the Episcopal Church, the property and other rights of parishes to “break away” from the Diocese, the duties of priests to report sexual abuse matters, personnel matters and their intersection with First Amendment rights, real property and construction issues, and other matters typical for a general counsel of a complicated organization. Additionally, I advised many clients on how to avoid litigation and successfully participated in many mediations, including one disputed trust/estate matter which involved dividing ownership of many lots comprising a substantial part of the downtown of one California city. In another matter designated as complex in San Mateo Superior Court involving five family groups that disputed the ownership and disposition of approximately 250 parcels of real property in numerous counties in California before Hon. Carol Mittelstaedt, I helped negotiate the settlement prior to trial of the first of two consolidated lawsuits before starting my job with the Justice Department.

As a board member of a number of organizations, I participated in significant negotiations and decisions, though outside lawyers did the legal work. With Ellicott Machine Corporation, I was involved in the decision to split the corporation and sell each part in 1992. I negotiated with the Forest Service on behalf of the North Fork Association to help preserve thousands of acres in the Sierra Nevada as a research area. I helped settle in mediation allegations of child abuse and retaliation for Groton School. I advised Good Samaritan Family Resource Center when it was unionized. I negotiated with neighbors of the Katherine Delmar Burke School so that the school could rebuild its facility.

I have not performed any lobbying activities on behalf of any client or organization.

19. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

I have not taught any courses.

20. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

I do not have any deferred income or future benefits.

21. Outside Commitments During Court Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

None.

22. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

See attached Financial Disclosure Report.

23. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

Matters in which Coblenz, Patch, Duffy & Bass LLP is counsel of record would present a potential conflict of interest, since the firm currently represents me in estate matters. Any immigration case served during my tenure as Deputy Assistant Attorney General would also present a potential conflict. I also own stock in various companies. Matters relating to my immediate family and sibling, if any were to arise (none are pending) would also present a conflict of interest. I would recuse myself from all such matters consistent with applicable rules.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

I will handle all matters involving actual or potential conflicts of interest through the careful and diligent application of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges as well as other relevant Canons and statutory provisions, e.g., 28 U.S.C. § 455.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

During the summer after my first year in law school, I represented clients in special education hearings as an intern with the Massachusetts Advocacy Center. In my second and third years in law school, I worked at the Boston College Legal Assistance Bureau, which provided free legal services for low-income residents in Waltham, Massachusetts. I represented a number of clients under the Massachusetts student practice rule in divorce, custody, landlord tenant and other matters, and argued a case before the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts. I was elected president of the Legal Assistance Bureau by my peers.

After graduation from law school in 1979 through the beginning of January 1984, I represented indigent persons as a staff attorney, acting managing attorney and supervising attorney with Georgia Legal Services Program in Savannah, Georgia. I brought cases in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Georgia, and circuit rode to Liberty County, Georgia each week for hearings and interviews involving all manner of legal services matters, from domestic relations to public benefits to contract to housing cases.

After returning to San Francisco in 1984 to practice with Coblenz, Patch, Duffy and Bass, LLP, I assisted the Good Samaritan Family Resource Center on many legal issues from 1986 to 2009. I represented the charities and schools of the Episcopal Diocese of California on an as-needed basis from 1992 to 2009 (my work advising the Bishop was partially compensated, but my work for the non-profits and schools as a general rule was not).

In addition, I was active in our pro bono program at the firm. I was honored by the Bar Association of San Francisco for my work in a pro bono case, Akao v. Shimoda, 832 F.2d 119 (9th Cir. 1987), in which I prevailed on appeal for inmates from Hawaii whose pro se complaint alleging deliberate indifference to serious medical needs had been dismissed for failure to state a claim. I was co-chair of my firm's Pro Bono Committee from approximately 1994 to 2009. During that time, I supervised most of our firm's pro bono litigation. I helped lead and staff the Tuesday night clinics for the Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights in which our firm participated from 2006 to 2008, taking primarily debt collection and landlord-tenant matters. I handled several cases myself, including two prisoner matters to which U.S. District Judges Vaughn Walker and James Ware appointed me.

When I began work with the Civil Division, access to justice issues were part of my portfolio. In the last three years, we doubled our sponsorships of the Advocacy and Referral Clinic offered by the DC Bar Association. I participated in one of those sessions. We also created an award for pro bono representation by Civil Division attorneys to encourage attorneys to fulfill their obligations under Canon 2.

26. Selection Process:

- a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

I submitted a Questionnaire to the Chair of the Judicial Screening Panel for Senator Barbara Boxer in December 2010. In September 2011, I was interviewed by Senator Boxer's committee. Since March 13, 2012, I have been in contact with officials in the Office of Legal Policy at the Department of Justice. On April 10, 2012, I met with officials from the White House Counsel's Office and the Department of Justice in Washington, DC. On June 11, 2012, the President submitted my nomination to the Senate.

- b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.

No.
