Committee on the Judiciary
United States Senate
224 Dirksen Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Majority Leader Schumer, Minority Leader McConnell, Chair Durbin & Ranking Member Grassley:

We write to express our enthusiastic support for the nomination of our colleague Tamika Montgomery-Reeves to the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. Justice Montgomery-Reeves has all the qualities of an exceptional jurist – keen intellect, strong work ethic, humility, and balanced and well-reasoned decision making. She is a warm and friendly colleague. As the first Justice to offer her views in conference, she is always well-prepared and receptive to other points of view. She has been an effective liaison Justice to other courts of our State.

Before appointment to the Delaware Supreme Court, Justice Montgomery-Reeves served with distinction on the Delaware Court of Chancery – a court renowned for deciding some of the largest business disputes involving United States corporations. She developed a reputation as a fair and impartial Vice Chancellor, who authored scholarly opinions on difficult issues of Delaware corporate law. We have no doubt that her experience on the Delaware Court of Chancery, along with her time as a Justice on Delaware’s highest court, has prepared her well to serve as a judge on the Third Circuit.

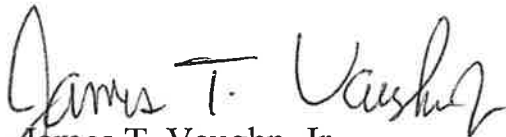

Sincerely,

Collins J. Seitz, Jr.
Chief Justice

Karen L. Valihura
Justice

James T. Vaughn, Jr.
