Re: Nomination of Amy Coney Barrett to the Supreme Court of the United States

Dear Chairman Graham and Ranking Member Feinstein:

The American Bar Association's Standing Committee on the Federal Judiciary has completed its evaluation of the professional qualifications of Judge Amy Coney Barrett, who has been nominated by the President to be an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. As you know, the Standing Committee confines its evaluation to the qualities of integrity, professional competence, and judicial temperament. A substantial majority of the Standing Committee determined that Judge Barrett is "Well Qualified," and a minority is of the opinion that she is "Qualified" to serve on the Supreme Court of the United States. The majority rating represents the Standing Committee's official rating.

Yours very truly,

Randall D. Noel
Chair, Standing Committee
On the Federal Judiciary
