Re: Confirmation of Judge Amy Coney Barrett

Dear Chairman Graham, Ranking Member Feinstein, and Members of the Senate Judiciary Committee,

Judge Amy Coney Barrett of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit is a highly qualified nominee exhibiting outstanding education, experience, temperament, and character. Judge Barrett should be swiftly confirmed as Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

Judge Barrett's experience working at the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals, the United States Supreme Court, private practice, George Washington University School of Law, and the Notre Dame Law School bring an excellent perspective to the United States Supreme Court. It is also past time to have a Supreme Court Justice who did not attend Harvard and Yale law schools. We need a better balance of perspective and the fact that Judge Barrett went to the Notre Dame Law School fosters a better representation for the people of our country. Judge Barrett will respect the United States Constitution, exercise judicial restraint, and not be a justice who will usurp the role of Congress.

Judge Amy Coney Barrett will make an excellent Supreme Court Justice, and the Senate should confirm her without delay to fully seat our highest court to take on the difficult issues that face our country.

Sincerely,

Franklin Graham
