

Senator Johnny Isakson
Senate Judiciary Committee
Hearing on Nominations
November 13th, 2018

I'm pleased with President Trump's excellent nomination of DeKalb County Superior Court Judge Jean-Paul "J.P." Boulee to serve as a United States District Judge for the Northern District of Georgia.

Judge Boulee is an outstanding legal professional and member of his community in Decatur, Georgia, where he lives with his wife, Julie, and their two kids. He founded the DeKalb County Veterans Treatment Court and is a member of the State Bar of Georgia's Judicial Procedure and Administration/Uniform Rules Committee. In addition to his service on the Superior Court, Judge Boulee has served our country in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps and as an attorney.

Judge Boulee has earned his reputation as a fair judge who is hardworking, and he is respected on both sides of the political aisle. I hope all members of the committee will give him a fair hearing today, and I look forward to working with Judge Boulee as his nomination proceeds in the Senate.
