Dear Attorney General Bondi and Acting Deputy Attorney General Bove:

The Senate Committee on the Judiciary exercises its constitutional oversight of the Department of Justice to issue this request to preserve all existing and future records and materials related to: (1) actions taken by the U.S. Department of Justice to dismiss the prosecution of New York City Mayor Eric Adams; and (2) actions carried out by U.S. Department of Justice officials to identify and remove prosecutors who refused to dismiss the prosecution of Mayor Adams.

We make this request after shocking revelations that you demanded the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York dismiss the indictment of Mayor Adams for reasons unrelated to the merits of the case.¹ Former Acting U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York Danielle Sassoon, along with at least five other career prosecutors in the Department of Justice Criminal Division, have resigned in protest.²

We remind you and all Department employees, including all employees of component agencies and offices, of your legal obligations to preserve federal records and your ongoing

In accordance with federal law, all employees and officials within the Department have a legal responsibility to take measures to preserve, retain, and collect all documents, communications, and other relevant records, including electronic information and metadata that are or may be responsive to each investigation or a congressional inquiry.³ This includes electronic messages sent using both official and personal accounts or devices and records created using text messages, phone-based message applications, or encryption software.⁴ We urge you to ensure that Department employees do not delete or destroy any official government records, including “information created, manipulated, communicated, or stored” electronically.⁵ As you know, any employee who conceals, destroys, or attempts to conceal or destroy a federal record may be subject to fine and imprisonment.⁶

We look forward to your full and immediate compliance with these requests. Thank you for your prompt attention to this important matter.
